

PDA users who are tired of cramming both a PDA and a wallet into their pants pockets should be delighted to learn that Sumdex, Inc. has created a belt-mounted, leather combination PDA case and wallet. This leather case is available in brown or black, with two elastic battery holders, pockets for business and credit cards, and a removable ID wallet with pockets for business, credit, and reference cards. The case has a self-healing zipper and comes with a limited lifetime replacement warranty. The exterior measures 5.5" x 4" x 1.5", the PDA compartment is 5.5" x 3.75" x 1.4" and it weighs 2 oz.

This case works well with the Zire 31 and Zire 72 PDAs as well as many other models available from palmOne.
