One of five bags in Sumdex's She Rules collection, the Sumdex Meg Cosmo Brief focuses on style but doesn't leave functionality behind. It's aptly padded and has plenty of storage pockets, but it's on the small side, so if you're looking to transport your bulky 15-inch laptop with it, you're out of luck.

This $90 bag is soft, light, and comfortable to carry, even when it's protecting a heavier laptop. The laptop compartment is relatively small--our bulky laptop with a 15-inch screen wouldn't quite fit, but a slimmer 15-inch laptop did--but the compartment is well padded and has a nylon-and-Velcro strap to keep your laptop securely in place. A roomy main section with two large mesh pockets can easily hold a variety of accessories. On the bag's exterior are three additional pockets: one pouch on the side, which is kept closed by a magnet, and two large zippered pockets on the other side. A removable accessories pouch is included.
